

Communication and Language

In class we are : copying sounds and using our communication aids

At home please: sing songs such as 'Head, Shoulders, Knees and Toes' and talk about the body.

Physical Development

In class we are : practising ball skills and developing our hand skills with Write Dance.

At home please: follow my physio programme

PSED

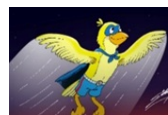

In class we are : learning to be more independent and will be cleaning our teeth every day.

At home please: talk to me about my body when you are doing personal care.

Literacy

In class we are : listening to a story by Vogue Williams called 'Jump to the Stars'

At home please: read me stories and listen to Brays Bedtime Stories.

Super Swifts

Explorer

Home

learning : The Body

Understanding the World

In class we are : learning about our body and our senses through art, music and sensory lessons.

At home please: let me smell, taste, look at and touch different textures.

Maths

In class we are : learning through 'Body Mapping' that we are 1 and have a head, hands and feet and finding hidden things.

At home please: hide my favourite toy under something, can I find it?